without fanfare and media attention for five decades. The practice 'Bungalow students' is the modern version of gurukula where Shishyas live with the Guru and get education. The Secretary and Correspondent Shrimaan Ayya who is a versatile genius and an erudite scholar, housed economically disadvantaged students in his home where lessons on morality, spirituality, scriptures, Upanishads, human values, hygiene, health care, literature etc., were imparted to the students. These Bungalow Students study their UG, PG, M.Phil. and Ph.D. in the institution without paying for tuition, examination and boarding. As a staunch Gandhian, Ayya had been mentoring the bungalow students for fifty five years inculcating the Gandhian practices such as minimalist life style, early rising, yoga and meditation, cleanliness, gardening etc., These self transformed Bungalow Students now hold high positions all around the world and commemorate their mentor in various occasions.
