2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on the website and communicated to teachers and students

In compliance with the objectives of Outcome Based Education (OBE), Program Outcomes (POs), Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs), and Course Outcomes (COs) are framed by the respective departments, and the same is displayed on the college website.

POs are broad statements that incorporate the inter-related knowledge, skills, personality traits, and professional accomplishments that the program aims at and to be attained by the time of completion of the program.

PSOs are the specific skill requirements and accomplishments to be attained at the micro level by the end of the program.

COs describe the essential and enduring disciplinary knowledge and abilities that students should possess and the depth of learning that is expected upon the completion of a course.

POs, PSOs, and COs are displayed and adopting the following:

- POs are displayed in prominent locations of the respective departments

- At the beginning of each course, teachers take responsibility of explaining COs and their importance. So that, the students can perform well and attain the COs.
- By the end of the course, the students are familiarised with the course outcomes and thereby able to assess themselves through a student course exit survey. Thus, awareness regarding the course outcomes is ensured.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes as evaluated by the institution

The attainment of POs, PSOs, and COs is assessed by both direct and indirect methods. The POs and PSOs are assessed based on COs.

The institution adopts the following strategies to ensure the attainment of POs, PSOs, and COs:

- The careful inclusion of important components of the courses in the frame of the syllabus and the preparation of questions giving equal importance to all the units of the syllabus make the students to attain COs.
- CIA indicates the faring of the students and their depth of acquisition of knowledge, skill, and aptitude. It gives the optimum results and makes the learners regular and purposeful. All the learning outcomes are measured step by step.

Fare examination processes involve in the attainment of COs and POs in the direct assessment method. Outcomes of the programmes and the courses are observed closely in the result review meetings headed by the Principal for all the departments. The pass percentage serves as one of the measures of attainment.

Organizing seminars, workshops, and conferences, publishing papers in reputed journals, conducting intra and inter-collegiate competitions, Health awareness programmes, personality development programmes, field surveys, internship programmes, and cultural activities support indirectly to attain the POs and PSOs

RESEARCH, INNOVATIONS AND EXTENSION

3.1 - Promotion of Research and Facilities

3.1.1 - The institution's research facilities are frequently updated and there is a well-defined policy for promotion of research which is uploaded on the institutional website and implemented

Research Facilities

A conducive environment for pursuing research with global standards has been provided by establishing exclusive research laboratories and libraries with provisions for accessing e-resources through INFLIBNET and DELNET. As an outcome of these facilities, 129 research articles have been published in SCI, SCIE, SCOPUS, and UGC-CARE-Listed Journals during this academic year (2022-2023). The h-index of the institution increased markedly and reached 57 in 2023. Three of our teachers have figured in the list of the World's Top 2% scientists released by Stanford University, USA and one senior teacher has awarded for the D.Sc., Degree.

Research advisory committee

The Research Advisory Committee (RAC) of the institution promotes and monitors the research activities. The RAC guides students and research scholars in getting fellowships and research scholarships. In departments, the respective Departmental Research Committees (DRC) monitor the Ph.D., admission process by scrutinizing the application and research proposals submitted by the candidates.

3.3 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.3.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and creation and transfer of knowledge supported by dedicated centres for research, entrepreneurship, community orientation, incubation, etc.

Fourteen departments in the college have been recognized as research centers offering Ph.D. and M.Phil. programs. To promote need-based and socially/nationally relevant research on campus, the Research Advisory Committee initiates the signing of MoUs with other institutions, Universities, and industries for the effective sharing of knowledge and research facilities. Research collaborations through MoUs and Linkages lead to the flourishing of meritorious research activities and the publication of quality research articles. Under these bilateral research agreements, several students from neighbouring institutes avail the research facilities established in the institution. One of our faculties, Dr. V. Ambikapathy has visited Indonesia as an invited Speaker at an International Conference.

The Research Nodal Centre established in the institution provides a research platform for inter-departmental research resource sharing.

Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC)

The prime aim of EDC is to elicit latent entrepreneurial abilities in the students and improve employability by organizing sponsored entrepreneurship awareness camps, workshops, certificate courses on various topics, industrial visits, and trade expos. The health center extends treatment to nearby villagers in addition to students and staff. The Indian Overseas Bank and post office on the campus extend their services to the neighbouring villages.
